TURKEY SURRENDERS UNCONDITIONALLY AND ARMISTICE IS CONCLUDED

FIFTEEN AUSTRIAN DIVISIONS CUT OFF BY ALLIED VICTORY

Trapped in Mountains Between Brenna And Piave Rivers

LOSSES APPALLING

Thousand Square Kilometers Of Italian Territory Reconquered In Day

33,000 PRISONERS

Attacking Front Of Great Battle Extends Over Sixty Miles

(American Wireless To Reuter)
Washington, October 31.—(Received at French Wireless Station).—Despatches received today said that 15 Austrian divisions between the Brenna and the Piave on the Italian front had been cut off through the capture of the mountain pass and the valley by Italian and Allied troops. The Austrian losses were appalling. A thousand square kilometers of Italian territory were reconquered yesterday. Apparently the whole front has been driven northward.

(Reuter's Agency War Service)
Rome, October 30.—The Allied offensive on the Piave front has resulted in the capture of over 20,000 prisoners.

The attacking front now extends over a hundred kilometers from Grappa to the sea as the 3rd Italian Army, under the Duke of Aosta, has begun to advance and has established bridgeheads across the Lower Piave at Salgarada, opposite Zenon, and San Dona di Piave.

The advance of the 12th and 5th Armies threatens from two directions Vittorio, the enemy's only outlet to the Venetian plains from the Brenner Pass.

33,000 Taken Prisoners.
An official communique reports: Between the Brenna and the sea three-quarters of the Italian army is engaged in conjunction with the 14th British Army Corps, a French division and a regiment of American infantry.

The enemy eastward of the Piave is yielding under the formidable pressure.

We gained advantages yesterday in the region of Pertica and Col dell'Oro.

Our operations astride the Piave resulted in the capture of Sordano and Mount Cosen. We reached the southern outskirts of Quaro and our 8th Army reached Vittorio and is now fighting northward of Conegliano, while the 3rd Army has crossed the Piave at San Dona di Piave and eastward of Zenon.

Our prisoners total 23,000 and several hundreds of guns have been taken.

In Albania we occupied San Giovanni di Medua and are advancing towards Scutari.

Advance Is Rapid.
An official communique reports: Eastward of the Piave we continue to advance rapidly, sweeping away the enemy, who vainly attempts to stem our march.

The heads of our columns have reached Berrevalle, Urzago, Glarina and Oderzo, our cavalry has been launched on the plains and some squadrons have entered Sacile. The 3rd Army is brilliantly overcoming a strong resistance between the Piave and Montebelluna.

An opening into Ponte di Piave was carried after a fierce action. We have occupied Asiago.

Thousands of prisoners and many captured guns are still uncounted.

We have liberated a large number of Italian prisoners of war whom the enemy heavily worked in his lines of communication.

British Capture 11,000.
London, October 30.—An official despatch from British headquarters in Italy reports:

The 10th Army since the commencement of the present operations has taken 11,000 prisoners, of which

All Hungary Is Seething With Revolution; Budapest Placed Under Martial Law

Last Austrian Appeal To Wilson Culmination Of Split With Germany; Berlin Is Told Austria Cannot Continue War

(Reuter's Agency War Service)
London, October 30.—Swiss reports state that revolution is seething in Hungary. A hundred thousand demonstrators in Budapest in favor of Karolyi, peace and the abolition of the German alliance suffered heavy casualties by the fire of rifles and machine-guns while attempting to reach the palace of the Archduke Joseph. Martial law has been proclaimed in Budapest.

Count Karolyi has not been appointed Premier because the King does not accept his program, which includes the complete independence of Hungary.

There have been renewed rumors of the impending abdication of the Kaiser and much significance is attached to the fact that the Frankfurter Zeitung, one of the most responsible newspapers in Germany, is now urging this course.

Personal Appeal To Lansing.
It appears that Count Andrássy's dramatic new note has been telegraphed direct to Secretary of State Lansing, personally beseeches him "to use his influence with the President."

Count Andrássy is further credited with the intention of opening separate negotiations with Italy.

A telegram from Vienna states that Austria-Hungary has communicated the contents of Count Andrássy's Note to Lansing to the Allied Governments, requesting them to agree to the proposals and to support them in Washington.

On October 29 Count Andrássy telegraphed Secretary of State Lansing.

ALLIED NOTE TO CHINA MAKES SERIOUS CHARGE

Government Indicted For Laxity In War And Pro-German Conduct

(Reuter's Pacific Service)
Peking, November 1.—The Chinese press publishes the following as the text of the Allied Note to China:

(1) The Allies hoped that China would take advantage of the postponement of the Boxer Indemnity and the release of surplus Customs funds to improve the industrial resources of the country and the condition of the people. On the contrary, these funds have been wasted in party strife.

(2) Although the War Participation Bureau was established and soldiers trained, they were used for civil war.

(3) Without consulting the Allies China arranged for an exchange of representatives with the Vatican.

(4) Bandits have been allowed to interrupt the Tientsin-Pukow and Lung-Hai railways, thereby injuring both Chinese and foreign interests.

(5) The closing up of enemy concerns in China has never been strictly carried out.

(6) The Chinese authorities in Shanghai and Tientsin have failed to check enemy activities there.

(7) The regulations governing the prohibition of trading with the enemy have never been enforced.

(8) China has not acceded to the requests of the Allies to close up enemy businesses.

(9) The Taoyi at Heilho has been allowed to act as an enemy spy without restriction although the Allies reported the facts to China.

(10) Secret intrigues have been carried on in China without hindrance.

(11) When enemy spies with forged passports were arrested foreign representatives were not allowed to attend the trials.

(12) The Allies are not satisfied that China has faithfully carried out the duties of a participant in the war.

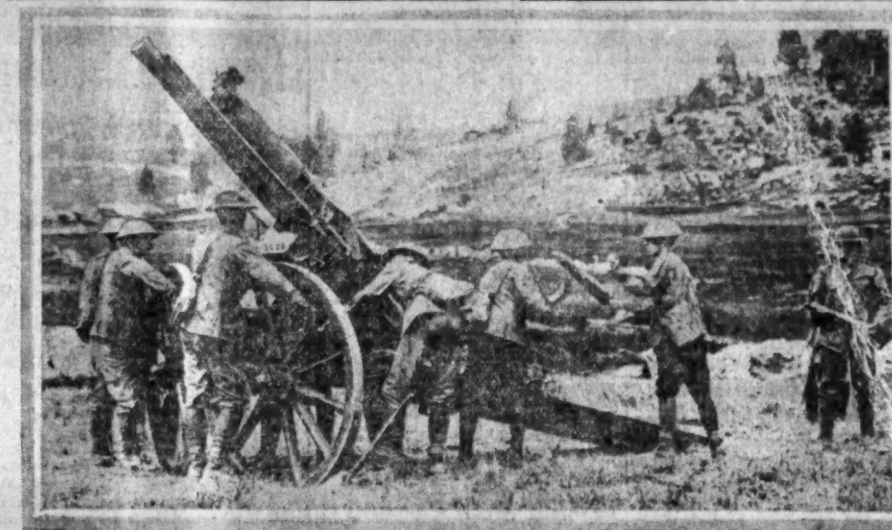

It is understood that the Cabinet yesterday agreed to declare North Manchuria a war-zone in order to facilitate operations and give the Allies control of the numerous enemy spies there.

Yesterday evening the enemy violently counter-attacked west of St. Yuzen. We maintained our positions.

In two days our 5th Army has taken 1,453 prisoners, including a colonel of the Guard cavalry and three battalion commanders.

KAISER TELLS DEPUTIES HE IS WILLING TO QUIT

Will Abdicate If Interests Of Germany Demand It, He Says

(Reuter's Agency War Service)
Amsterdam, October 30.—A message from Berlin states that the Kaiser told a number of members of the Reichstag that the people must not think he has decided to stay on the Throne and added that, if the moment came when the interest of Germany demanded it, he would abdicate unhesitatingly.

It is generally admitted that the abdication of the Kaiser "when it takes place," will be in favor of the eldest son of the Crown Prince, necessitating a Council of Regency headed by the Chancellor.

Amsterdam, October 30.—A message from Berlin states that Germany has despatched a supplementary note to President Wilson explaining the constitutional changes in Germany.

Washington, October 30.—The supplementary note has been delivered. It is stated that it makes no change in the situation.

The next step is expected to be an announcement in all the capitals of the associated powers to the effect that the Kaiser is willing to abdicate.

London, October 30.—In the House of Commons today, replying to a question, Lord Robert Cecil stated that there was no evidence that the power of the German Bundestag has been modified in any way.

The German Secretaries of State are appointed by the Kaiser and they are presumably liable to dismissal by him and therefore presumably the so-called German War Cabinet does not correspond, from a constitutional point of view, to the Allied War cabinets.

Half Of Montenegro Reclaimed By Allies

In North Serbia Allies Are Only Forty Miles From Danube

(Reuter's Agency War Service)
London, October 30.—The latest news shows that the Serbians in Northern Serbia are now only forty miles from the Danube while another force of Serbians is near the Bosnian frontier. Nearly half Montenegro has been reclaimed.

Paris, October 30.—An official despatch from Eastern headquarters reports:

The Serbian cavalry has reached the Danube east of Semendria and occupied Pazaric. The enemy is in a hasty retreat. We have reached the front at Mitrovica, Topola-Palanka and are 45 miles from Belgrade.

German Rail Traffic In Limburg Stopped

(Reuter's Agency War Service)
Amsterdam, October 30.—German rail traffic through Dutch Limburg has been discontinued.

Mr. Judah Ezra Files Action Against Mr. W. L. Merriman

Plaintiff Asks Tael 175,000 In Damages, Alleging Defamation Of Character

Civil action against Mr. W. L. Merriman, asking damages of Tael 175,000 for defamation of character, was filed by Mr. Judah E. Ezra through his attorney, Mr. A. D. Gibbs of Manila, in the United States Court for China yesterday afternoon.

Damages are asked on eight counts, all alleging that Mr. Merriman had "falsely and maliciously charged the plaintiff with having, by means of bribery and corruption, induced and caused the 9th United States Cavalry team to intentionally lose a game to Meiji University for the purpose of defrauding the persons with whom the plaintiff had made wagers."

The first count states in part "that the defendant before and at the time of the committing by the defendant of several grievances hereafter mentioned was a person of good name, credit and reputation and deservedly enjoyed the esteem and good opinion of his neighbors and other worthy citizens and residents of the city of Shanghai and other cities of the Orient where he was known. Yet the defendant, well knowing the premises, but wrongfully and maliciously intending to injure the plaintiff and to bring him into public scandal and disgrace, on or about the third and eighth days of August and at divers other times since then and before the commencement of this action in the said city of Shanghai, referring to a certain baseball game played in said city on August third between the 9th United States Cavalry and Meiji University teams and by the former lost to the latter and upon the outcome of which game the plaintiff had wagered and won a considerable amount of money, falsely and maliciously charged the plaintiff in the presence and hearing of divers persons with having by means of bribery and corruption induced the said Cavalry team to lose said game."

The petition alleges that words spoken and published concerning Mr. Ezra "meant and intended to be understood by his hearers to mean that the plaintiff had bribed and corrupted the members of the Cavalry team into conspiring with him to cheat and defraud the persons with whom the plaintiff had made bets."

The petition continues "that all of said words are false and defamatory and the speaking and publication thereof injured the plaintiff in reputation in the sum of Tael 15,000 and resulted in his expulsion from the Shanghai Race Club to his further damage in the sum of Tael 16,000."

The second count quotes the petition by Mr. Merriman in which he asked Mr. Ezra's expulsion from the Race Club as a result of the events following the discussed game. The petition alleges the contents of the petition to be false and defamatory. Tael 30,000 is asked on the second count.

The notice calling the meeting of the Race Club and the posting of same "where it could be read by non-voting members and divers other members of the Club" Tael 10,000 is asked on this count.

Mr. Merriman's alleged activity in using in concert with Mr. W. S. Jackson and others in calling the Race Club meeting forms the basis of the fourth count. The meeting is alleged to have been held "for the purpose of wrongfully and unlawfully trying and expelling the plaintiff upon the charge mentioned in the letter of August 9," according to the petition. The causing of the letter to be sent and published in the presence of the members and many non-voting members and other persons is another basis for complaint. Damages of Tael 30,000 are asked in the count.

The fifth count deals with the events of the meeting when plaintiff was expelled from the Race Club. The petition mentions Chairman Jackson's withdrawal of the bribery charge and the substitution of the charge of improper conduct in associating with negroes. It then alleges that Mr. Merriman acted maliciously by stating "Well, I wrote that letter and I am perfectly willing to withdraw the charge of bribery, but I can prove it up to the hilt and I am willing to do so right here." Judgment of Tael 20,000 is asked in the count.

"The defendant, not content with the expulsion of plaintiff from the Shanghai Race Club as aforesaid, but further contriving and intending to injure and bring him and the said members of the 9th United States Cavalry baseball team into public scandal and disgrace, afterwards, acting in concert with the said W. S. Jackson and others, maliciously procured and caused to be printed and published in pamphlet form and to be circulated throughout the city of Shanghai a verbatim report of the minutes of the said meeting of the Shanghai Race Club," alleges count six.

The pamphlet, which included Mr. Merriman's letter of August 9, "injured the plaintiff in his reputation in the sum of Tael 20,000 and resulted in his expulsion from the Shanghai Race Club, of which he was a member, to his further damage in the sum of Tael 2,000," continues the petition.

Tael 20,000 is asked in the seventh count which treats of articles appearing in the Shanghai Mercury of August 20 and 21 and a letter to the Mercury signed "Clean Sport" and published August 22 is mentioned in the final count. "The publication of the letter injured the plaintiff in his reputation in the sum of Tael 20,000," says the petition.

Under American laws, 20 days must elapse before the action begins.

General Townshend Is Freed To Act As The Intermediary

(Reuter's Agency War Service)
London, October 31, 4 p.m.—Reuter's agency learns that Turkey has surrendered unconditionally.

Reuter's Pacific Service

Hongkong, November 1.—The Secretary of State has cabled to the Governor of Hongkong that an armistice with Turkey was signed on October 30. Its terms include a free passage for the Allied fleets through the Bosphorus to the Black Sea, occupation of the forts of the Dardanelles and the immediate repatriation of Allied prisoners of war.

The Secretary of State has cabled as follows in a message dated London October 31:

The following announcement will be made in the Houses of Parliament this afternoon:

"Some days ago General Townshend was liberated in order to inform the British Admiralty in command in the Aegean that the government of Turkey asked that negotiations be opened immediately between Turkey and the Allies."

"The reply was sent that if the Government of Turkey sent a fully accredited plenipotentiary Vice-Admiral Calhoun was empowered to inform him of the conditions on which the Allies would agree to a cessation of hostilities and to sign an armistice on these conditions and on their behalf."

Armistice Is Signed.
"The Turkish plenipotentiary arrived at Mudros early this week and an armistice was signed by Admiral Calhoun, on behalf of the Allied Governments, last night and came into operation at noon today."

"It is not possible yet to publish the full terms of the armistice but they include free passage for the Allied fleets through the Bosphorus to the Black Sea, the occupation of the forts on the Dardanelles and the repatriation of Allied prisoners of war."

(American Wireless To Reuter)

Washington, October 31.—(Received at French Wireless Station).—A London press despatch today said that the British Government had received definite peace proposals from Turkey which are regarded as tantamount to unconditional surrender.

A press despatch from Paris dated October 31 announces that a Turkish armistice was signed at noon at Mudros.

Lansing's Note To Turkey.
Washington, October 31.—(Received at French Wireless Station).—Secretary of State Lansing announced today that the following note has been handed to Senor Eliano, the Spanish Ambassador:

"I did not fail to lay before the President the note which you addressed to him on the 14th instant and handed to me on that date. Acting under the instructions of your government you enclosed with that note the text of a communication received by the Minister of Foreign Affairs of Spain from the Charge d'Affaires of Turkey at Madrid on October 12 in which the good offices of the government of Spain were sought to bring to the attention of the President the request of the Ottoman government that he take upon himself the task of the re-establishment of peace and that he notify all belligerent states of the request and invite them to delegate plenipotentiaries."

to initiate negotiations, the Imperial Ottoman Government accepting as a basis for the negotiations the program laid down by the President in his message to Congress of January 8, 1918, and in a subsequent declaration, especially his speech of September 27.

It is further requested by the Imperial Ottoman Government that steps be taken for the immediate conclusion of a general armistice on land and on sea and in the air. By the direction of the President the honor to inform the Government of the United States will bring the communication of the Turkish Government to the knowledge of the governments at war with Turkey.

"Accept, Excellency, renewed assurances of my highest consideration."

"ROBERT LANNING."

(Reuter's Agency War Service) Amsterdam, October 31.—The Turkish press is disposed to credit the current report that Turkey is negotiating with the Entente. The public favors the opening of the Straits and permitting the entrance of an Allied fleet for the purpose of landing a detachment to supervise demobilization.

London, October 30.—An official despatch from Mesopotamia reports: Our cavalry eastward of the Tigris forced the river northward of Klat Sher Ghat, and joined our armored cars. The enemy made a heavy attack on the 29th, forced back our right flank but failed to drive us off the Mosul Road. Reinforcements arrived and rescued the situation. Meanwhile our troops advancing up the west bank attacked and drove the Turks from their position and captured Klat Sher Ghat.

Our pursuit continued on the 29th. We penetrated deeply into the enemy's position five miles northward of Klat Sher Ghat, took a thousand prisoners and much material.

Confusion in Austria (French Wireless)

Lyon, October 31.—The note sent by Count Andrássy to President Wilson brought to a culminating point the confusion reigning in Austria-Hungary. The result of the note was to place Vienna and Berlin in absolute contradiction without it being possible yet to detect where the falsehood lies and who it is meant to deceive—the German people, the Austro-Hungarian people or the peoples of the Entente. In fact, despite the positive denials of Count Wedel, the German ambassador at Vienna, the Austro-Hungarian Government absolutely refused to admit that the sending of its note was not known to the German Government.

The Vienna Correspondents bureau maintains that the duly qualified Austro-Hungarian authorities long ago informed the Imperial German Government that the Dual Monarchy would not be able to carry on the war after a certain date. Furthermore, directly Count Andrássy took in hand the direction of affairs on October 26, the Emperor Karl is said to have sent a friendly telegram to Wilhelm telling him clearly enough that Austria-Hungary would shortly be bound to make a peace move toward peace. In a conference held on the same day by the Foreign Minister and Count Wedel, the German ambassador, the latter is also said to have informed the latter of the step that the Government in Vienna was on the point of taking and, finally, they are said to have held another conference on the same subject on October 27 before the note was sent to President Wilson.

Anyway an interview with the German Ambassador published by the Vienna Press, which appears to be in all the other newspapers, has caused a great impression in Vienna and has caused persons severely criticize the leading side of Germany and accuse Count Andrássy of having only in view the interests of Hungary. Count Andrássy highly approve the action of the Foreign Minister in favor of peace and the confusion of minds is worse than ever in Austria.

Canada For Republic

London, October 31.—The Czechoslovak Legation continues to work at Vienna with the assistance of the Foreign Minister and M. Omskiy, Czechoslovak-Slovak delegate to London, and M. de La Fayette, in the course of a conversation with the Foreign Minister, M. Kramar, was given the following statement:

"We had a general discussion of questions in which we are interested. After examining the situation in Czechoslovakia, we proceeded to examine the political and economic conditions and the subject of compensation. The Czechoslovak delegation, to complete their information regarding the political situation in Czechoslovakia, listened to the news given by the delegates of the Paris Government. An absolute unanimity of opinion characterized the conference. The session was presided over by M. Kramar, assisted by M. Omskiy as Secretary.

"We are now going to examine minor points and we shall probably be able to terminate our work within three or four days. The inhabitants of Czechoslovakia are ready to die for their ideals and to get their country free and to make it powerful. A month ago at Prague it was possible to proclaim, without any discussion, the independence of Czechoslovakia. Austria no longer exists. It is ridiculous to imagine that we are going to be a monarchy and call a Prince to the throne of Hapsburg to the throne. We mean to be independent."

OBATA APPOINTMENT ANTAGONISES PEKING

Is Worst One Who Could Have Been Chosen, Is Consensus

(Reuter's Agency War Service) Peking, November 1.—A correspondent of the Peking Daily News says:

"The report that Mr. Obata has been appointed Minister to Peking should serve as a warning to those ignorant and blind Chinese who fondly imagine that each new Japanese Government intends to make up for the acts of aggression of its predecessors by following a policy of friendship towards China. Mr. Obata made himself notorious during the negotiation of the infamous Twenty-one Demands in 1915 and he is probably the most unpopular Japanese official in the eyes of the Chinese people."

With a view to testing the above Reuter's correspondent has interviewed a number of prominent persons and the consensus of opinion was that the above comments aptly portray the opinion, not only of Chinese but also of foreigners throughout China that the appointment evidently recalls a matter best charitably forgotten, that it tends to destroy the belief that the Hara Government represents a broader, wiser and more democratic policy, that it fills the friends of Japan with dismay and that it offers a challenge to her enemies based on the ground-work of the Twenty-one Demands.

JAPANESE WANT CLOSER RELATIONS WITH U.S.

Mission Arrives To Study Economic And Industrial Life In United States

(American Wireless To Reuter)

San Francisco, October 31.—Japanese Consul Obata today entertained the delegates of the Tokio Chamber of Commerce, Messrs. Reizo, Yamashina and Shiba, who are on a mission to study the commercial and industrial activities of the United States. Mr. Yamashina said:

"The aims of our mission are to strengthen the bonds of friendship between the United States and Japan, and to prepare for closer trade relations after the war. The national strength, stability and resourcefulness of the United States stagger our imagination. We want to be companions to America in the world's great race to maintain civilization and ensure genuine happiness. Therefore we have a great desire to cultivate a sincere friendship between the people of our two nations and establish a closer relationship with the United States commercially and industrially."

JAPAN-ARGENTINE TRADE INCREASES 400 PERCENT

Nippon Probably Can Retain South American Market, Says Minister

(American Wireless To Reuter)

Washington, October 31.—(Received at French Wireless Station).—Senator Ortiz, Argentine Minister to Tokyo, said today:

"In two years the trade between the Argentine Republic and Japan has grown 400 percent. Japan has a very good chance to keep the markets it has won in South America."

ALLIED NAVAL MEETING BEING HELD IN PARIS

Believed To Be Formulating Demands In Connection With Armistice

(Reuter's Agency War Service)

Paris, October 30.—An important Allied naval conference is being held here, presumably formulating the demands in connection with the armistice. Sir Eric Geddes, the First Lord of the Admiralty, and Admiral Sir Rosslyn Wemyss, the First Sea Lord, are included among the British representatives.

Bolshevik Leader Urges Massacres

Would Celebrate Anniversary Of Revolution By Slaughtering Remainder Of Bourgeoisie

(Reuter's Agency War Service)

Stockholm, October 29.—A message from Petrograd states that a Bolshevik leader named Glinovskiy, in a fiery speech, urged workmen to celebrate the anniversary of the revolution on November 10 by exterminating the remains of the bourgeoisie. The speech is regarded as an incitement to a massacre and has caused a panic in Petrograd.

CONSUL N. T. JOHNSON STARTS FOR U.S. TONIGHT

Goes First To Peking, Then To Washington To Take Up New Post

Mr. Nelson Truett Johnson, American Consul, leaves for Peking tonight on his way to the United States where he will become assistant in the Division of Far Eastern Affairs at Washington. Mr. Johnson expects to stop off briefly in Nanking and from the capital will proceed to Japan, catching the Ecuador at Yokohama.

Mr. Johnson's trip to Peking was so suddenly decided upon that it was not possible to arrange a more elaborate farewell party, as had been hoped, but the United States consular staff yesterday afternoon held an impromptu "family" farewell celebration in his honor in the way of a tea and dance at the Astor House.

A large number of Mr. Johnson's many friends here called at the Astor House to bid him goodbye and wish him a fair voyage and all success at his new post.

CHINESE PRISONER HANGS SELF IN CELL

Man Charged With Fraud Of $94,000 Commits Suicide At Station

Mung Cheong-yi, a Chinese charged in the Mixed Court with securing $94,000 through the sale of a Hupeh mine which did not exist, hanged himself on the door of a cell in the Central Police Station early yesterday morning. Mung was last seen by the police in his cell at 5:15 o'clock. At 5:20, however, when the cook called, there was no answer. Sergeant Gilmann discovered the body. An inquest was held in the morning and a verdict of death by strangulation self-inflicted was returned.

SHANGHAI PEOPLE HEIRS OF CHICAGO MILLIONAIRE

The Rev. E. C. Lobenstein And Mrs. Rose L. Beebe Named In Father's Will

The Rev. E. C. Lobenstein and Mrs. Rose L. Beebe, both of Shanghai, are named as heirs in the will of the late Mr. William C. Lobenstein, millionaire leather merchant of Chicago and Leavenworth.

When Mr. Lobenstein made his last will, just before the war, there was a large bequest to the General Board of Social Relief, St. Louis, Mo., and to the General Board of Social Relief, St. Louis, Mo. Subsequently, when the stories of German atrocities began to appear and when it had been proved Germany was responsible for the war, the patriotic merchant changed his will. The widow receives $200,000 in four annual installments of $50,000.

Another heir is Mr. Horace G. Lobenstein of Detroit, brother of the Rev. E. C. Lobenstein and Mrs. Beebe. The Rev. Lobenstein left here a month ago for the United States.

White Sea Villages Found In Starvation

No Sugar Or Flour For Two Years, American Red Cross Workers Find

(American Wireless To Reuter) Washington, October 31.—(Received at French Wireless Station).—A cablegram from Archangel today said that American Red Cross workers who had returned from a trip to isolated towns on the coast of the White Sea reported that they found the inhabitants on the verge of starvation. In some villages there had been no sugar and no flour for two years. The Red Cross distributed a hundred tons of provisions, medicines and other supplies.

GENERAL VON GROENER SUCCEEDS LUDENDORFF

Commander Tried To Set Up Military Dictatorship And Failed, London's Opinion

(Reuter's Agency War Service)

Amsterdam, October 31.—A message from Berlin states that General von Groener has been appointed Quartermaster-General in succession to von Ludendorff.

London, October 30.—Von Ludendorff's resignation has hitherto been explained as chiefly due to the failure of his military plans but later advice strongly intimate that the Government overthrew the new Government and establish virtually a military dictatorship. The Government proved stronger and von Ludendorff was forced to resign.

The incident illustrates the future possibilities if the Government grows weaker.

HORVATH APPOINTED HIGH COMMISSIONER

Order Issued To Remedy Obstacles Caused By Railroad Strikers

Reuter's Pacific Service
Harbin, October 31.—According to the Siberian telegraph agency General Horvath has been appointed High Commissioner of the Siberian Government for the Far East.

Vladivostok, October 31.—Some insight of the conditions in West Siberia is afforded in a telegram from General Dietrich published today addressed to "All the Commanders of the Czech-Slovak contingents on the railroad from Ufa and from Ekaterinburg to Vladivostok."

It reads: "Notwithstanding that the Siberian railway is handling heavy transports from the east to the front, where already for four months we have been fighting the Germans, Mayans and Bolsheviks, strikes are occurring on the line from the enemy by our efforts, thereby delaying the conveyance of troops and munitions and congesting the stations with the bodies of refugees moving from the west to the east."

"I do not wish to interfere with the administration of the railway but we are waging a life and death struggle and are compelled to remove the obstacles hindering success. I therefore order the commanders of stations to remove from service immediately all strikers, treating them as enemies and confining them in concentration camps together with prisoner Red Guards. In the event of resistance, agitation or incitement, call the nearest troops and effect order by force of arms, hanging agitators and sedition mongers."

BOMB TRUST MEMBERS GET LONG SENTENCES

Seven Chinese Given Terms Ranging From 2 To 17 Years

At least one of Shanghai's "bomb syndicates" must have held a lamentation meeting last night following the conviction and sentence of seven Chinese by the Mixed Court for attempted extortion and bomb plantings and throwings at the New World amusement building. Severe sentences were asked by Mr. K. E. Newman, Police Prosecutor, and they were forthcoming when Assessor Grant Jones and Magistrate Kwan delivered judgment. The ex-soldier convicted of throwing the bomb on October 16 which injured two persons was given 10 years. One other charged with attempted extortion and sending bombs was given 17 years, another received a 7-year sentence and four others sentences of two years each.

In summarizing up, Mr. Newman stated that there were evidently several bomb "longs" at work in Shanghai.

One of the prisoners testified that he received 40 cents apiece for placing bombs in the amusement building, of which he had to spend 30 cents to gain admission.

IN FUKIEN TOO
An armistice was signed in Fukien between Admiral Shu Cheng-ping and the Southern authorities yesterday according to an official report to Peking last night.

ONLY DEMOCRATIC PEACE ACCEPTABLE TO CANTON

Southern Government Will Make Declaration To That Effect To American Congress

Reuter's Pacific Service
Canton, October 31.—The Military Government today replied to the Peace Societies by stating that the Constitutionalists desire an early peace but that peace must necessarily be constitutional and also permanent.

The National Assembly proposes to communicate with the United States Congress declaring that it desires a democratic peace within China and, like the Allies, in favor of world democratic peace.

Committee Reports On Gold Problems

Recommends Establishment Of Sinking Fund And Increase Of Reserve

(Reuter's Agency War Service)
London, October 30.—The report of the committee of financial experts, including representatives of the Dominions, appointed by the Treasury to consider currency problems after the war, recommends the establishment as early as possible of a sinking fund from revenue and an increase in the gold reserve to 1153 millions. It expresses the opinion that an early resumption of the circulation of gold in the country after the war is not desirable.

Salary Contract Case In U. S. Court

An award of Tls. 550 with costs given Mr. H. Leslie Ford in his suit against the Macdonell-Chow Corporation by the judgment delivered in the case yesterday by Judge E. R. Lohmeyer of the United States Court for China. The amount awarded was Tls. 9,000. Mr. A. Kriese appeared for the plaintiff and the defendant firm was represented by Mr. W. B. Fleming of Messrs. Fleming and Davies. The text of the judgment follows:

This is an action on a contract made by defendant's attorney and director and executed in New York on February 23, 1918, under which plaintiff entered into the defendant's employment. Clause 4 provides that:

"The said Ford shall receive for his services and the corporation agrees to pay to him the sum of at least Fifty ($50) Dollars per week (payable weekly) during the continuance of his employment. But it is understood that the salary of the said Ford may be increased, if the services rendered by him warrant an increase which increase to be arranged and agreed to for the corporation by the president."

Plaintiff, after alleging his arrival in Shanghai on March 31, further alleges:

"That thereafter and on or about the 13th day of April, 1918, the defendant corporation through its president and manager at Shanghai, China, increased the salary of the plaintiff to the sum of Tls. Three Hundred per month, payable monthly."

To this averment the answer "Admits that through its president and manager at Shanghai it increased the salary of the plaintiff but alleges that such increase was only temporary and upon the agreement and understanding that it should be terminated at any time thereafter at the option of the said president and manager."

Defendant's only witness in support of its affirmative allegation of defense following the admission above recites in its president and manager and he does not testify to any "agreement and understanding" with plaintiff that the increase should be terminated at the former's option. He says, indeed, that he stated he "would temporarily grant him (plaintiff) an advance pending future developments" but he does not claim that plaintiff agreed that this advance should be only temporary. Moreover, on the same date as that alleged in the answer as the occasion of the increase, the president and manager wrote to the home office as follows:

"Mr. Ford, on his arrival here, has found the cost of living greatly in excess of what he had previously understood they would be. In consequence, I have had to make a temporary readjustment of his salary, which I beg to refer to you for confirmation."

Here, while speaking of the readjustment as temporary, he does not indicate any agreement or understanding with plaintiff to the effect that the same might be terminated at the manager's option.

On the other hand, plaintiff testifies that the increase to Tls. Three Hundred per month was reached as the result of a discussion in which various figures were named and that nothing was said about the increase being temporary. It is conceded also that the manager did pay plaintiff the sum of Tls. Three Hundred for each of several months without question and the conditions which required the increase to that sum—principally the low price of American currency in which the minimum salary was fixed—became more and more aggravated as the employment continued. Finally, it will be noticed, that while the contract authorizes the president and manager to arrange in the corporation's behalf an increase of plaintiff's compensation there is no provision authorizing him to decrease it and it seems doubtful if such authority could be inferred without plaintiff's consent.

The contract was drawn, as we have seen, by defendant's attorney and director and the rule of interpretation in such cases is that of contra proferentem, i. e., that the instrument is to be construed most strongly against the framer. Moreover, the burden rests upon defendant to prove its affirmative defense "that such increase was only temporary and upon the agreement and understanding that it should be terminated at any time thereafter at the option of said president and manager." In the light of the whole testimony we are unable to say that this burden has been met and we must therefore find that the increase to Tls. Three Hundred per month continued until changed by mutual agreement or by other circumstances not here shown.

II. The complaint further alleges: "That thereafter and on or about the 21st day of July, 1918, the defendant corporation, through its president and manager of the Shanghai office, wrongfully discharged the plaintiff and refused to permit him to serve as aforesaid, though the plaintiff then and there offered to continue in said service and offers to perform all conditions on his part to be performed under the said agreement."

The answer admits (par. 4) the discharge on the date mentioned but denies that said discharge was wrongful and "alleges that said plaintiff was discharged for misconduct and insubordination." Here again the burden of proof rests upon defendant, having admitted the discharge the justification thereof is for it to show. The particular case alleged by the manager, who is again defendant's only witness on the point, is the application to him of an offensive epithet by plaintiff. The latter denies this and the testimony is therefore evenly balanced; for it cannot be said that one of these witnesses is more interested than the other. Moreover, it is conceded that immediately after the interview at which the alleged epithet was applied, the manager came to the plaintiff and asked him to continue though at the minimum salary. This, if not inconsistent with the claim of alleged misconduct, would seem like a condonation thereof and—

"If there has been an actual forgiveness of a breach of contract on the part of a master to a defaulting servant, he cannot afterwards rely upon such breach in discharging the servant."

Especially in view of the letters (Ex. C and E.) praising the quality of plaintiff's services we cannot say that sufficient cause for his discharge has been shown.

III. Plaintiff testifies that after his discharge he sought employment with other firms, that he was finally offered a position with a local house at a salary considerably larger than he had been receiving from defendant, but that he voluntarily chose not to accept it, giving as the sole reason negotiations with defendant or re-employment. The rule is that the amount which a discharged servant earns, or might with due diligence have earned, after his discharge must be applied in mitigation of his damages.

Whether the negotiations referred to justified plaintiff in failing to accept this new position is not clear; for both parties have treated him as privileged, the details are not in evidence, and it does not even appear when they terminated. A cable (Ex. F) from defendant's home appears to have been received on August 14 advising plaintiff to "do nothing further; await our instructions." But a letter of the same date (Ex. G) from defendant's attorneys announced that "under the circumstances will they make any further offer, or consider the re-employment of Mr. Ford in the Shanghai office." At that time, it is undisputed, he could have taken his new position and any delay would seem to have been at his risk. Moreover, there is no evidence that the offer has ever been withdrawn. For while plaintiff states that he "was told that the position had been filled" the department manager of the firm which made the offer, testifies that it still remains open so far as he is concerned, and that his "wishes cry much control." Upon the whole, before us we are unable to find that plaintiff has met the burden of showing that he was justified in not accepting the offer at least before the complaint was filed.

It is true that defendant does set up this defense in its answer and plaintiff objected to the admission of evidence disclosing this other opportunity of employment it could necessarily have been excluded. But plaintiff not only did object to the admission of such evidence but as already stated he himself testified, before its admission, to a search for other employment resulting in the offer in question. In such cases the rule is that evidence received without objection, though not strictly admissible under the pleadings, must be considered.

It is also true that the evidence fails to show the duration of the employment offered by the new firm and therefore should it cease before "the expiration of the first year" (within which under clause 3 defendant is entitled to terminate) under the old contract, plaintiff might still have a cause of action thereon. But that could only be tested by accepting the employment and seeking in good faith to retain it as long as possible. We cannot presume that such employment would cease before March 31, when the year above referred to ends, nor is there any evidence from which we could even conjecture the value of the contract in the improbable contingency that defendant should fail to give notice of cancellation before said date. The sixty days' notice provided by said clause is required only for termination at the end of the first year.

We feel obliged, therefore, to limit plaintiff's recovery of salary at this time to the period between July 31, the date of his discharge, and September the date of filing the complaint, and necessarily after plaintiff terminated the negotiations with defendant. At the amount to which we have found he was entitled under his contract, his total salary for this period would be Tls. Five Hundred and Fifty.

IV. The contract further provides: "Upon the expiration in regular course or at any earlier time by mutual consent of the parties) of the term of employment above stated, or of any extended term of employment, the corporation agrees to pay the traveling expenses of the said Ford and of his wife for the return trip to New York or any other point or place in the United States."

A similar privilege is reserved to plaintiff in case of cancellation of the contract at the expiration of one year or in case of his discharge for cause, though in each of said cases there is a proviso that plaintiff and his wife must "leave the Orient for the United States not more than thirty days after such cancellation." As we have found that the evidence is not sufficient to establish a discharge for cause and as a year has not expired since the execution of the contract neither of these latter provisions would seem applicable and the one above quoted must be applied unless we are to hold that defendant is able to escape this concession by a wrongful discharge. The employment has now been terminated by the acts of both parties—the discharge by defendant and the acceptance thereof by plaintiff—and again bearing in mind the contra proferentem rule we are of the opinion that the paragraph above quoted included this case. Defendant shows that it reserved passage for plaintiff on a steamer leaving within forty-eight hours from the time of notifying him and within which time he testifies he was unable to leave. It is also shown that defendant offered to provide transportation for plaintiff during the balance of the month of August but that no transportation was available during that period. Moreover, the mere reservation or offer to provide transportation does not constitute the performance of an agreement "to pay" the "traveling expenses," etc. There is no claim here that defendant has ever paid these expenses nor tendered the amount thereof to plaintiff and without such a showing we do not consider this clause of the contract performed.

On the other hand it is only the expenses of "the return trip" which defendant undertakes to pay. Plaintiff is not entitled to these unless he actually makes "the return trip" and in view of the possibilities of other employment in China we are of the opinion that he should present a showing of an intention to return and evidence of which there is none, as to the amount of such expenses. If the parties cannot agree as to these items, further evidence will be received in relation thereto.

It is accordingly considered and adjudged, that plaintiff have and recover at this time from defendant the sum of Tls. Five Hundred Fifty, together with his costs with out prejudice to future recovery upon any cause or causes of action hereafter arising from the contract sued upon.

Red Cross Appeals For Refugee Clothes

Urgent Need For Winter Garments in Siberia Emphasized in Telegram

An urgent appeal has been sent by Dr. Teusler from Vladivostok to the American Red Cross in China, asking their earnest efforts to obtain a large supply of all kind of garments suitable for winter wear.

The Shanghai Chapter asks each resident of Shanghai and the Shanghai Consular district to take an inventory of their winter clothing and see if there are not a few pieces to be spared to help comfort those who are in need in that far north country.

Dr. Teusler states that "unless additional clothing can be sent to Siberia at once many will suffer, as the winter weather has already set in."

Kindly deliver spare winter garments to 13B Kiangsi Road. Mark the bundles "Shanghai Chapter, Refugee Garments for Vladivostok"—and your offering will be shipped by next steamer.

Those living outside of the city may send their bundles by parcel post, or by steamer by placing the bundles in care of the officers, in which case they are asked to advise the Shanghai Chapter so that delivery can be taken upon arrival.

This is an urgent matter and should appeal to all.

Shanghai Rifle Association

The October monthly competition of the Shanghai Rifle Association was held Thursday morning under good weather conditions. The competition conditions were "service" 300 yards; 2nd class S.V.C. target; five shots deliberate and five shots rapid.

Mr. W. T. Rose was the winner of "A" Class, with a score of 45, winning a spoon and taking third leg on the cup. Mr. T. Nagaike won in "B" Class, scoring 42 and winning a spoon and taking first leg on the cup. Mr. A. F. Gomes and Mr. K. D. Chen won in "C" and "D" Classes with scores of 36 and 35, taking spoons and first leg on the cups.

The Association's monthly bulletin announces as new members Mr. F. A. Johnson, American Co., S.V.C., and Mr. K. D. Chen, Chinese Co., while Mr. K. D. Chen, Chinese Co., has rejoined and is posted in "D" Class. Mr. T. T. Chow has been elected by the committee a life member of the organization as a mark of appreciation for his generous gifts.

It is announced that entries for the Siberian Red Cross Cup competition, to be held Saturday, November 20, will be closed on November 27 at 5 p.m. The entrance fee is $1, the proceeds to be devoted to Siberian Red Cross funds.

Mr. Neville Craig, newly appointed United States Deputy Marshal, who succeeds the late Mr. John Kavanaugh, took over office yesterday.

It is a coincidence that Mr. Craig, who was recommended for the post by Mr. Kavanaugh some time ago, knew the Acting U. S. Marshal some years ago in Alaska. Mr. Craig has seen thirty years of United States Government service in various branches of the army and in the Philippine service. He is a 32nd degree Mason and has a host of friends in Shanghai.

A Letter From Home

Somewhere in America. Sometime in October. To Private William Tibes. Somewhere in France or Germany. Dear Bill--This is to let you know your old man has registered and is not going to claim any exemption and will probably be in your midst soon. And if I catch you smokin' them fags when I get there I will wallop you just like I used to in the woodshed. I'll bring the trunk strap wrapped around my kit.

You are too busy to get home on a visit and I thought this would be a good chance to see you. I hope you haven't got round shouldered carrying your medals around. Remember, you started out to be a general. You haven't got beyond the first hole yet.

Nothing much has happened around here. Old Hank Stebbins, who don't think any more of a nickel than he does of his chance to get into heaven and who used to make his wife write shorthand so as to save ink, has bought a War Savings Stamp and hung up a service flag with one star on it.

Everybody else I know seems to be doing his dandiest to get the old hump around Hindy's thorax, and believe me, bo, when me and the postmaster and Old Cale Prouty get over there you will see some real fighting, and the Rhine River won't be any harder to get across than a mud puddle here in Main Street, Squantumville.

Woodrow seems to be makin' good right along and has got his son-in-law working nights, and any man who kin make his son-in-law work is some figgerer.

Herb Hoover got back from Europe all right with a lot of new ideas, and the roast beef at the Commercial House is so thin you can read a newspaper through it, but nobody gives a darn so long as you boys get it plentiful and juicy.

Jim Ham Lewis got torpedoes, but nothing like that ever bothers a Senator from Ill-noise.

Luke Frisby has sold his cockstove to buy a Liberty Bond. He says he don't need the stove any more, anyhow, as he hasn't got nothing to put in it or on it.

I'm proud of you, Bill, danged if I ain't, but you need your old man over there to show you how to do it. You kids don't need to think the manpower of this country is on the hummer. When I went to register, 'other day, I got there at 5 o'clock in the morning, and there was four hundred and eighty seven guys closer to the head of the line than I was.

The country is goin' dry July first, and it looks like we will have a safe and sane Fourth for the first time since George Washington crossed the Rubicon and taught Lord Cornwallis how to knit. Caruso has gone and got married and will probably continue on the even tenor of his way.

Newt Baker is in France, as I suppose you know. When you see him, tell him your old man is coming over and he can begin shippin' troops back home as soon as I land, for when I get there it will be the beginning of the end. I always liked Newt and I want to help him out of this mix-up.

It rained cats and dogs yesterday and they had veal stew for supper at the Commercial House.

Old Lufe Higgins was run over by a Ford last week. The doctor tells Lufe's wife there ain't much hope and that Lufe is almost sure to recover.

We can't run the old buzz cart on Sunday any more and the Justice of the Peace is liable to go on the town for support. He hasn't had a case of speedin' in three weeks.

We are all getting along pretty well. Of course, we ain't got a helova lot of sugar, but every time we get any news about you boys it sweetens us up enough to last a month. Deacon Stubbs's mule Hyacinth kicked him through the side of the barn last week. She caught the deacon conserving her food by mixin' one part of sawdust with one part of ground feed.

All the boys are settin' up nights tryin' to W. the W. Doc Garfield--you know Doc--well, he got a letter from me last week which solved the coal problem. My idea is to make all the locomotives burn slabs.

Now, Bill, you write me you have copped twenty-seven heines since you been over there. Where is, your bringin' up? Didn't I teach you better than that? That ain't heinie killin' at all. You ort to get that many a day.

Wait till I get there. I got cheated last time. I spent the whole Spanish duration somewhere in Chattanooga, for which probably eight hundred Spaniards are alive today.

Tom Marshall is still Vice-President. "Still" is right. "Stop settin' in the hammock and readin' Bertha M. Clay novels and get out and do something. If you ain't got ninety notches in your gun when I get there I'll wallop the tar out of you."

Mother and me is larnin' to dance the jasszarimba, the new dance, which is all the go as soon as I git that learnt I'll be over to dance it on Hindy's stummick, am goin' to give the Ford to the Gov'ment next week to use as an alrship. I never could keep the thing on the ground. Will be with you soon.

Yours with a heap of love,
YOUR OLD DAD.

Japan's Newly Rich

Mr. Shiomi, a Tokio barrister, in the September issue of the Horitsu Shimbun (Law Journal) refers to some remarkable examples of the extravagance indulged in by certain "narikin." It is said that a well-known mine-owner in Kyushu gave a dinner-party in Tokio recently to fifty guests at ¥300 a head. The caterer, somewhat at a loss to know how to "go the limit," provided a "gesha" for each guest, engaging all the most expensive members of the profession who were available. A Kobe "narikin" entertained some guests to dinner at a Tokio restaurant the other day, the cost per head being ¥100. A "luna-narikin" during a stay at Ikae with his concubine, ordered by telephone from a Tokio restaurant two dishes of "unagidom-buri" on condition that the food should arrive hot after traveling about a hundred miles. The proprietor of the restaurant took the order, engaged a motor-car, fixed up a "bibiachi" to keep the food hot, and delivered the goods at the mountain resort in two hours and a half, returning with ¥200 in his pocket! Mr. Shiomi fears there will be many more cases of crazy waste of money by "narikin," whom he says are stingy enough in donating money for the relief of the poor or sufferers from calamities. "They are simply madmen, whose actions corrupt public manners and morals." The Tokio barrister thinks that just as it was legal under the feudal system to confiscate the property of such swollen-headed men it would be advisable today to levy a heavy impost upon them, so that they may be prevented from repeating such foolish actions as those referred to.

The Blood Of War

(From the American Chemical Society)

The importance of exercising the utmost economy in the use of paper during the period of the war has been pointed out by Mr. T. J. Keenan, a prominent member of the American Chemical Society, who is engaged in the industry. The relation of sulphur and chlorine to the pulp and paper industry, as well as warfare, is closer than most people are aware of.

Sulphur is burned in ovens to produce sulphur dioxide gas, which is made to combine with lime in the presence of water to form an acid sulphite of calcium. This solution also has a percentage of free sulphuric acid. Large quantities of this solution are used in sulphite pulp mills in the preparation of the pulp, and it is the class of papers which contain sulphite pulp, both bleached and unbleached, that must now be used sparingly in order to conserve the supply. Nearly all book and magazine papers contain bleached sulphite pulp in considerable proportion. The cheaper newspaper papers contain 15 to 20 percent of sulphite pulp, the remainder consisting of the whole substance of the wood produced by grinding logs against stones in such a way as to preserve the fibre in its greatest length and strength. Many of the so-called manilla wrapping papers contain sulphite pulp and a call has gone forth for greater economy in the use of this class of paper, as well as the book, magazine and cheaper bond papers, some of which are made entirely of sulphite pulp.

The sulphur fields of the United States in Louisiana and Texas have been taken over by the government and the production of chlorine is also under control, the supply of chlorine bleach to paper mills being restricted. Sulphur is sometimes called the blood of industry and war.

The development of gas warfare on the Western front and difficulties in getting a full supply of sulphur and chlorine are what has caused the government to assume control of their production. One of the most effective of recent inventions in gas shells is the mustard shell, composed of dichlorodithiophosphine which, as its name implies, is a compound containing chlorine and sulphur. Chlorine is also the chief constituent of carbon tetrachloride, which is the base of one of the most effective smoke screens.

WHAT IS SAID ABOUT THE WYSE PIPE No. 2.

THE WYSE PIPE MAKES IT EASY TO MAKE IT TIGHTER

FOR BAD WEATHER.

THOROUGHLY tested by thousands of British Officers on active service, who consider it an ESSENTIAL PART of their pipe outfit--the only pipe that can be smoked in rain and wind, the "roofed-in" top (see diagram) guarantees this. Send for one.

The Wyse Pipe burns from the bottom upwards, yet it has the appearance of a cigarette pipe. Every 1000 smokers explain why the KINGS DO NOT DROP OUT.
